AN ACT

To annul the charter of the Franklin Canal Company.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It is provided by the act, entitled "An Act regulating railroad companies" passed, on the nineteenth day of February, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, that if any company incorporated by special act of Assembly thereafter to be passed, shall at any time misuse or abuse the privileges granted by the said act, or by its own special act of incorporation, the Legislature may revoke all and singular the rights and privileges so granted to such company:

And whereas, It hath been judicially ascertained that the Franklin canal company, a body corporate authorized by the laws of this Commonwealth for the purpose of re-constructing or repairing the Franklin division of the Pennsylvania canal, with the privilege of constructing a railroad, and using the graded line or towing-path of the said canal as the bed thereof, and of extending from the north end thereof to Lake Erie, and from the south end thereof to Pittsburgh, and made by its charter expressly subject to all the provisions and restrictions of the said first above recited act, hath, under color of the authority and privileges thus conferred, and without re-constructing or repairing the said Franklin division, or constructing a railroad thereon or along the same, and on the pretence of an extension of a work not either completed or commenced, laid down and constructed another and independent road along and nearly parallel with the lake shore, from the depot of the Erie and North-East railroad to the western boundary of this State, at the eastern terminus of a certain railroad within the territory of Ohio, and so as to form a continuous line with the said last mentioned road, and to constitute, as declared and represented by themselves, a part or section of another and distinct road, designated by them as the Erie and Cleveland railroad, the same being a road not known to or sanctioned by the laws of this Commonwealth, and being intended exclusively to facilitate the transit of passengers and merchandise to and from the cities of Cleveland and New York, over and through the territory of this State :

And whereas, It hath also been satisfactorily ascertained that in the pursuit and consummation of the said illegal object and purpose, the means constituting the alleged capital stock of the said company have been almost exclusively furnished by the said Ohio company, upon a contract which limited the application thereof to the said illegal purpose, and whereby the said Franklin canal company hath abdicated and transferred a large part of its corporate powers and duties to the said Ohio company, and hath moreover placed itself under a voluntary disability for an indefinite period to carry out the great ends and purposes of its creation :

And whereas, It hath been further ascertained that in the construction of the said unauthorized and illegal road, the said Franklin canal company hath in addition to the disability aforesaid, exhausted its whole alleged and authorized capital stock and resources, and incurred a considerable debt over and beyond the amount thereof, without having performed any of the obligations imposed upon it by law, and hath thereby also stripped itself of all its legitimate and available means for the accomplishment of the great primary and substantial object of its incorporation.

And whereas, It is the solemn judgment of this Legislature that the said Franklin canal company, by the said several acts and omissions hereinbefore first recited and described, hath proceeded in bad faith, and in fraud of the law and purposes of its creation, and hath been guilty of a wilful and premeditated perversion, abuse and misuse of the rights, authorities and privileges conferred upon it so gross and palpable, as to call imperatively for the exercise of the summary power of revocation reserved as aforesaid in the incorporation thereof ; now therefore, in consideration of the premises,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all and singular, the rights and privileges heretofore granted to the Franklin canal company, by the act of Assembly authorizing the Governor to incorporate the same, passed on the twenty-seventh day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and by the act amendatory thereof, passed on the ninth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, or by any other act or acts of Assembly supplementary thereto, be and the same are hereby rescinded, revoked and utterly and forever annulled.

Privileges annulled.

SECTION 2. That the Governor of this Commonwealth be and he is hereby authorized and directed, to take such measures as may be deemed necessary, for the enforcing and carrying into effect the provisions of the foregoing section, together with all such incidents or consequences as may legally attach to the revocation aforesaid, and to appoint a suitable person or persons, to superintend the operations of the railroad claimed by, and now in possession of said company, running west or southwest, from the city of Erie to the Ohio State line, until the same shall be further disposed of according to law.

Duties of superintendents.

SECTION 3. That it shall be the duty of such person or persons so to be appointed by the Governor, to take possession of, and keep in repair and good running order, the said railroad, for the accommodation of the public travel and business, at rates not greater than heretofore charged, and to deposit the net revenues thence to be derived, in such banks as may be designated by the Governor, at least once in every week, not to be drawn thereout without checks countersigned by the Governor, and any accumulation of such monies shall be invested in the loans of the State of Pennsylvania, in the name of the Governor, under the trust of this act, and such person or persons so to be appointed, shall give adequate security, to cover any monies that shall come into his or their hands, and receive for his or their services, a compensation not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

Duties of sheriffs.

SECTION 4. That it shall be the duty of any sheriff of any county of this Commonwealth, and of all good citizens thereof, whenever warned or required by the Governor, or the person or persons so by him appointed as aforesaid, to aid and assist in the discharge of the aforesaid service, and they shall be and are hereby indemnified, by the Commonwealth, in all that they shall lawfully do under and in obedience to such requisition and command.

Disposition of revenues.

SECTION 5. That the trust upon which such revenue or collections or the investments thereof made as aforesaid, shall be to hold and dispose of the same as the Legislature of the Commonwealth may hereafter declare and enact, subject to any rights or obligations which may exist under the provisions of an act "regulating railroad companies," passed February nineteenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

AN ACT

To confirm the title to certain Real Estate in the district of Spring Garden and county of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, The equitable title to a large tract of land in the district of Spring Garden and county of Philadelphia, was purchased at sheriff's sale, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, by Samuel Coates, under proceedings on a judgment obtained in the Supreme Court of this State, by the president, directors, and company of the Bank of North America, against a debtor of the said bank, and the legal estate therein was subsequently granted by John Penn to the said Samuel Coates, as appears by the deed of Jonathan Penrose, sheriff, dated May the seventeenth, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and entered among the records of the Supreme Court, in book B, page forty-one, and the deed of the said John Penn, by his attorney in fact to the said Coates, dated December the eighteenth, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, recorded in deed book, number seventy-eight, page two hundred and forty-two, et cetera :

And whereas, It appears by a declaration of trust, dated December the twenty-sixth, Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, recorded in deed book number seventy-seven, page five hundred and forty-one, et cetera, executed by John Nixon, Josiah Hewes, and William T. Smith, the grantees of the said Coates, that the said purchase was made, and lands were held in trust for the said Bank of North America, the plaintiffs in the judgment above mentioned :

And whereas, The whole of the said tract has, more than forty years since, for valuable considerations paid to the said bank, been sold and conveyed by the said bank, and their trustees, to divers persons ; and a large number of buildings have been erected on various portions of the said tract, held under title so derived, and large sums of money have been paid to the State for taxes thereon, since the said bank has parted with all her interest therein ; but doubts have been expressed as to whether the title to the said tract be not defective, by reason of the statutes of mortmain and of a want of power on the part of the said bank, under its former charter, to hold real estate even when purchased under judgments obtained by the said bank, although such power is contained in its present charter :

Now, therefore, for the purpose of confirming the said title, and validating the said purchase,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the title of all persons who may have purchased, or taken any portions of the tract of land described in the aforesaid deed, from Jonathan Penrose, sheriff, to Samuel Coates, by title derived from the president, directors, and company of the Bank of North America, or from their trustees, shall be as valid and indefeasible ble as if the said bank had been, by its charter and act of incorporation, fully empowered to take and hold the said tract of land.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act entitled "An act relative to the estate of Kenneth J. Forsyth.

WHEREAS, Kenneth J. Forsyth, by his will dated April nine- Preamble.
teenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, duly proved and registered at Philadelphia, devised to Joseph W. Forsyth, his executor therein named, all the real estate to which he had any title, claim or right, whether in severalty or with others in trust, as therein set forth, and gave said executor power to grant, bargain and sell all the interest he had to any of said real estate, when it should be discreet to do so by reason of the rise in the value thereof, or for any good causes, and the avails thereof to invest in good mortgages or ground rents, and so toties quoties.

And whereas, The said Kenneth, in his life time, was in partnership with William Wright and John C. Hunter, and the three held together as tenants in common, certain real estate in Philadelphia aforesaid, some of which was held in the name of all three of said persons, and some in the name of said Hunter only, but for the benefit of the three.

And whereas, After the death of the said Kenneth J. Forsyth, the said William Wright and John C. Hunter, and the said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor as aforesaid, for the purpose of making an equitable division and partition of said property, made an agreement dated June seventeenth, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, recorded at Philadelphia, in deed book A. W. M., number fifteen, page two hundred and forty-three, et cetera.

And whereas, In order further to effect said partition, the said William Wright and John C. Hunter and wives, by two several deeds of same date recorded respectively at Philadelphia, in deed-book A. W. M., number forty-two, page two hundred and sixty, et cetera, and in deed-book number page cetera, granted and conveyed to said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor aforesaid in fee in trust, for the same use, intents and purposes as are set forth and contained in said will, and with powers, privileges and restrictions in said will mentioned of and concerning said testator's real estate, two full equal undivided third parts of three adjoining lots of ground on the east side of Thirteenth street, between Brown and Parrish streets, and of and in a certain lot or piece of ground situate at the northwest corner of Poplar and Ontario streets: And the said John C. Hunter and wife, by two separate indentures of same date, recorded respectively at Philadelphia in deed-book A. W. M., number forty-two, page two hundred and fifty-four, et cetera, granted and conveyed to the said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor as aforesaid, in fee in trust as aforesaid, and with like powers, privileges and restrictions, two adjoining messuages and lots of ground in Pine street, east of Broad street.

And whereas, After the making of the said several indentures the said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor as aforesaid, hath granted and conveyed divers parts and portions of said properties to divers persons, in fee simple, with and without reservation of a ground rent or ground rents, and in one instance received from a party to whom he had conveyed on ground rent, a reconveyance in fee, for the purpose of merging said ground rent.

And whereas, Doubts have been raised as to the power of said executor to sell in fee simple, reserving a ground rent, and whether he was competent to take real estate by way of purchase, or join in said partition with said Wright and Hunter, and whether the power of sale included the property so purchased, or whether it was confined to the one undivided third part whereof the testator died seized, and whether any purchaser from said executor was liable for the application of the purchase money.

And whereas, By reason of the existence of those doubts, the said executor has found it difficult to sell any of said real estate, and persons to whom he has sold with or without reservations of ground rent, have in turn found it difficult to sell what they bought, or borrow money by mortgage thereof:

And whereas, The Legislature of this Commonwealth, by an act passed on the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, entitled "An act relative to the estate of Kenneth J. Forsyth," confirmed and made valid the title of the said William Wright and John C. Hunter, to the parts and portions so conveyed to them by the said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor as aforesaid; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the titles of the said Joseph W. Forsyth, executor, as aforesaid, as derived from the said Wright and Hunter, and each of them, and of all persons to whom the said Joseph as such executor has since conveyed, and all and every person lawfully claiming by, from or under them or any of them, to the several pieces of real estate so conveyed to said Joseph by said Wright and Hunter, shall be and the same are hereby confirmed and made valid to all intents and purposes, as if at and before the execution of said agreements, the said Joseph as such executor had full power and authority to receive and take such real estate, and that all conveyances heretofore made or hereafter to be made by him of said estate, with or without reservations of ground rent, shall be held and deemed good and valid to all in-

AN ACT

To confirm the Title of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, to a lot of ground with the church erected thereon, situate on the east side of Franklin street, in the district of Spring Garden, in the county of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, By an act of General Assembly of this Commonwealth entitled "An act to authorize the second associate Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia, to sell and convey certain real estate," approved the twenty-eighth day of January, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, the trustees of the second associate Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia, were authorized and empowered to sell, grant and convey, and to make and execute a good and sufficient conveyance and assurance at law to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, all the right, title, interest and estate of said trustees and congregation, in a lot of ground with the church erected thereon, situate on the east side of Franklin street, formerly Lawrence street, at the distance of ninety-eight feet, one and a quarter inches northward from the north side of Green street, containing in front on said Franklin street, fifty-two feet, and extending in depth eastward on the south line one hundred and four feet seven one-half inches, and on the north line ninety-nine feet and four inches, in the district of Spring Garden, in the county of Philadelphia, and the proceeds of sale should be for the use of the said second associate Presbyterian congregation.

And whereas, It appears by the charter of the said congregation, that the name and style thereof is erroneously named in the said above recited act of Assembly, that the true name and style should be the second associate Congregation of Philadelphia, and not the second associate Presbyterian congregation of Philadelphia, as named in said act of Assembly.

And whereas, The said second associate congregation of Philadelphia, in pursuance of the said above mentioned act of Assembly, bargained and sold the said lot of ground with the church erected thereon, and by deed dated the first day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, recorded at Philadelphia, in deed-book T. H., number thirty-two, page three hundred and eighty-six, et cetera, the trustees thereof granted and conveyed the same unto the first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, their successors and assigns forever.

And whereas, Doubts have been entertained as to the power of the said the second associate congregation of Philadelphia, to sell and convey the said premises by virtue of the said above mentioned act of Assembly, in consequence of the misnomer in the style of said corporation, and it is proposed that their title should be confirmed; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the bargain and sale so as aforesaid made, and the deed made the first day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, by the said the second associate Congregation of Philadelphia to the said the first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, shall be held and taken to be good and valid, and of the same force and effect as if the style of said congregation had been correctly stated and set forth in the said above recited act of Assembly, and the title to the said lot of ground with the church erected thereon, be vested and confirmed absolutely in the said first Cumberland Presbyterian church of Philadelphia, their successors and assigns.

RESOLUTIONS

PASSED SESSION OF EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FOUR

No. 1.

RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the removal of the United States Mint from the City of Philadelphia to the City of New York.

WHEREAS, We have heard with apprehension, that movements continue to be made, and influences to be exerted, to effect the removal, by the government of the United States, of the Mint from the city of Philadelphia to the city of New York; therefore,

1. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That cherishing the credit, prosperity and honor of Philadelphia, and of Pennsylvania, and regarding these as involved in the proposed measure, we condemn the movement as unjust towards the city, which should, as the cradle of our Independence, be regarded with national pride, if not with national favor.

2. Resolved, That the proposed measure is politically unwise and inexpedient, inasmuch as it tends to foster and build up a centralized power, dangerous to liberty and republican equality.

3. Resolved, That the proposed measure is commercially inexpedient and unwise, inasmuch as, in addition to great and special favors already received from the National Treasury to build up their commercial marine, thereby absorbing the commercial prosperity of sister States, it will further aggrandise New York, at the expense of the other great commercial cities southward thereof.

4. Resolved, That the proposed measure is, in point of economy, unwise and inexpedient, inasmuch as it will involve the abandonment of buildings and machinery, fully adequate to the whole national coinage, and the erection of others, at an enormous expense, in the city of New York.

5. Resolved, That the proposed measure is, in a prudential aspect, unwise and inexpedient, inasmuch as it would remove the national treasure from a place of perfect safety, to a point peculiarly open to attack from the ocean.

6. Resolved, That Pennsylvania cannot but regard these constant movements and pressures upon the Congress of the United States, as illiberal and unjust, and she therefore appeals to her sister States, with an earnest and confident trust, that they will, by timely interposition, check the all absorbing and centralizing efforts of New York.

7. Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives, from Pennsylvania, be requested, and the Senators in Congress be instructed, to use every means in their power to resist the effort to despoil the Metropolis of Pennsylvania of the Mint of the United States, which has stood there with unblemished credit from the foundation of the National Government.

8. Resolved, That the Governor cause a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to be sent to each member of the House of Representatives, and the Senators in Congress from Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, The subject of the disposal of the public lands belonging to the United States, has for some time engaged the attention of public men :

And whereas, The condition of the treasury does not require the proceeds of sale to be used for the ordinary purposes of government :

And whereas, Gratitude, as well as justice to the soldiers who have been engaged in the wars of the Republic, has been deemed proper, as manifested by the passage of acts of Congress donating to the soldiers of the late war with Mexico large tracts of land :

And whereas, The soldiers of the war of eighteen hundred and twelve are, in every respect, deserving of the same gratitude of the people, and a donation to them corresponding to their deserts, and the law granting to the Mexican soldiers would meet with general approval ; Therefore,

1. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to use their influence and vote for the passage of an act granting to each soldier one hundred and sixty acres of public lands, in accordance with the request as published at the convention of soldiers lately held in the city of Philadelphia.

2. Resolved, That the Government of the United States should extend to the soldiers and widows of soldiers that remain of those who served in the last war with Great Britain, the benefits of the pension system that was created for and enjoyed by the soldiers and widows of the Revolution.

3. Resolved, That the Governor be requested to forward a copy of the foregoing resolutions to each of our Senators and members of Congress, and to each of the Governors of the several States.
